

FROSTBITE (Comedy)
By Nina Mansfield

Cast: 1 female, 2 males

After an encounter with some rabid polar bears, Candy and Carl are about to resort to cannibalism. Frostbite is a comedy about marriage, infidelity and eating human flesh.

Photo: Joel Haberli and Kymberly Tuttle in FROSTBITE, at the 2017 LIC One-Act Festival, LIC, NY in May 2017. Directed by Walter Hoffman.

CHARACTERS:

CANDY: A once devoted wife. (mid-thirties to 50s)

CARL: Candy's husband. (mid-thirties to 50s)

HANK: Carl's best friend and secret lover. (mid-thirties to 50s)

SETTING:

A desolate campsite in an Arctic tundra. Something to suggest a campfire.

SYNOPSIS:

After an encounter with some rabid polar bears, Candy and Carl are stranded in an Arctic Tundra, and are about to resort to cannibalism. As they contemplate chowing down on poor Hank's foot, Carl's fifteen-year affair with his best friend comes to light. And there's one more thing...Hank isn't dead! Frostbite is a comedy about marriage, infidelity and eating human flesh.

Frostbite* premiered at the 2017 LIC One-Act Festival in LIC, NY. The production was direction be Walter Hoffman.

Published in The LIC One Act Festival., Vol. 3

To request a script or performance rights, please send an email to [nina\[at\]ninamansfield\[dot\]com](mailto:nina[at]ninamansfield[dot]com).

Find it on the New Play Exchange Here;
<https://newplayexchange.org/plays/141827/frostbite>